One of the most successful dance acts from around the beginning of the new millennium is finally back in action. Belgium singer DEE DEE joins Israeli producer RONI MELLER with her vocal talents and together they present their already awaited dance release THE DAY AFTER (WILL I BE FREE). 'The Day After' was originally released in 2009 as an instrumental version and has now given the anticipated revamp adding the stunning vocals from Dee Dee. The track combines the catchy melody composed from Roni and the well written vocals from Dee Dee. Together they can proudly present an original dance track that is predestined to be played by all the Hands Up and Commercial Trance lovers around the world. Dee Dee had her international break in 2001 with her bestselling hit 'Forever' which was followed by 'The One' being released in 2003. This year, the versatile and talented singer is back with a lot of new projects to be presented soon. DJ, Songwriter and producer RONI MELLER started producing at the young age of 11 and has since then produced many tracks for Israeli artists, singers and bands and has also created many bootleg versions of current charts tracks, which of course were never officially released but found its way onto playlists through word of mouth. Additional remixes by Nivara, Comeea and Mario Lopez vs C-Base will be revealed soon!! This is reality, not MTV!!!
